

Cornell CEA Advisory/Stakeholder Meeting

April 26, 2019

Jordan Hall Auditorium

Cornell AgriTech

630 W North St, Geneva, NY 14456

8:30 am	Registration, coffee and refreshments
9:00 am	Introduction, objectives for the day, CEA developments in NYS Neil Mattson, director CEA program, Cornell University
9:15 am	Welcome and Introduction to the Center of Excellence for Food and Agriculture Catharine Young, Director of Center of Excellence, Cornell AgriTech
9:30 am	CEA producers panel: opportunities for expansion panel of 3 producers
10:15 am	Coffee break and networking
10:30 am	Untapped energy resources for CEA panel of energy companies
11:15 am	Update on the Greenhouse Lighting and Systems Engineering (GLASE) consortium Erico Mattos, Executive director, GLASE
11:35 am	Developing the hemp industry in New York Larry Smart, Professor, Horticulture & Associate Director, Cornell AgriTech
12:00 pm	Catered lunch, networking, and view research posters
1:00 pm	Understanding & meeting NYS's supply chain challenges Industry panelists
1:45 pm	Light and plant health: new approaches to disease and pest suppression David Gadoury, Senior Research Associate, Plant Pathology, AgriTech
2:05 pm	Supporting workforce development in CEA: skills and training pipeline for farm operations managers Maya Ezzeddine, Horticulture, Cornell University and Henry Gordon-Smith, Agritecture Consulting
2:25 pm	Recap, evaluate and set priorities for next stakeholder meeting
2:45-4:15	Optional tours of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hemp research in greenhouses, Larry Smart • UV-equipped greenhouses for plant disease control, David Gadoury • Food Venture Center, Kyle Kriner Guided tours, each stop is 15-20 minutes with a couple blocks of walking between sites

The meeting will be held at the Jordan Hall Auditorium at Cornell AgriTech, 630 W North St., Geneva, N.Y. View maps and directions. Parking is free and located directly behind the building.